You can usually find Lisa Boalt Richardson sipping tea no matter what time of the day it is. Her philosophy is "teatime is anytime and all the time." Lisa's friendly approach to writing and teaching others about this 5,000 year-old beverage is refreshing. Her first book, Tea With a Twist won "Best Tea Book USA 2009" from the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards. She is one of the first 15 in the world to graduate from the Specialty Tea Institute in 2008 and holds the prestigious title of "Certified Tea Specialist."
